

Marcellus Free Library November 2019

Linda Greenfield is honored as Special Friend - Volunteer of the Year 2019 by Friends of Marcellus Free Library

Congratulations to Awesome Art Class assistant and Thursday night volunteer Linda Greenfield on this special award. Linda was recognized for her long-time dedication to the library, assisting where and when she is needed. Special thanks to the Friends group for the lovely certificate and the gift given to Linda.

Personal Financial Workshops with Currency Claudio Tuesdays, November 5 and 12 at 6:00 pm Registration appreciated

Join us for a two-part conversation where financial concepts are discussed to promote awareness and improve your ability to effectively manage your personal assets. Currency Claudio will discuss the need to gain financial knowledge and some specific information you should have in your financial plan. Claudio holds no financial license or certifications. Using some logic, Excel, and a set of integrated calculations in conjunction with his engineering background, Claudio will demonstrate a working financial model. There will be time at each workshop for questions. Free and open to all adults.

Marcellus Mini Movie Family Film Festival Saturday, November 16 10:00 am to 4:00 pm Friends Community Room Free and Family Friendly

The Marcellus Family Film Festival - also known as M3F3 - is dedicated to bringing films to our community which entertain, make us think, reflect our local environment and are fun for all members of the family. The festival's first year was 2016, and it continues to grow and focus on what makes it special and unique. Our mission is to increase film making and appreciation in the community. Watch USA and international short films you can't see anywhere else! We have comedy, animation, female filmmaker, family/home and drama categories.

A TRIBUTE TO CITIZENS AND ORGANIZATIONS THAT MADE OUTSTANDING CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE CONTINUING GROWTH OF THE MARCELLUS FREE LIBRARY

A Time to Remember

The month of November is a special time for remembrance and gratitude. The Marcellus Free Library takes this opportunity to express warm and grateful appreciation for Library benefactors, who have passed away during this past year. These legacy gifts in their names help to support the library information services, programs, and resources that this community needs and expects.

By naming the Marcellus Free Library (a 501c3 not-for-profit corporation) in a will, trust or other planned giving vehicle, you can impact the lives of our patrons, from infants to the elderly, for years to come. In the past year, we are especially thankful for generous gifts from the estates of Jane Cummings Amidon and Katherine "Bonnie" Wilson. Jane, a life-long Marcellian, was the daughter of the famous local artist and candy maker Ruth Reed Cummings. An avid reader, Jane was a life-long member of the Friends of Marcellus Free Library, and also had been a member of the Library Board of Trustees. Bonnie, a resident of Marietta, loved to read and was a bluegrass music enthusiast. These women provided a legacy that will pass on their love of reading to future generations.

Memorial donations may also be made to the library in name of loved ones who have died. We especially thank families and friends of Doris Isabelle Carpenter, Nancy J. Dawson, Richard Smith, Rosemary Coccia, Marissa Reilly, Will Hoyt, Susan Burnett, Anne Pelchy as well as Jane Amidon who have been memorialized with gifts to the Library. These thoughtful remembrances reflect their love of the Library and the commitment of families and friends to sharing that love.

We ask that you consider making legacy gifts to the Library, in order to pass on the values of lifelong learning, equal access to information, and the public good to future generations. When memorial gifts in the name of an individual surpass a total of $500, the individual's name will be inscribed on a memorial plaque located in the Library's Community Room. Please contact Library Director Jake Widrick for further information. As with any financial decision, you are encouraged to consult your attorney or financial advisor.

November News

The Friends Book Bag Sale ($3/bag) will continue in the lobby until Nov. 4. A heartfelt thank you to everyone who came to the sale and helped us raise money for future library programs. The next meeting of the Friends Group will be Wednesday, December 4 at 11:30 am to decorate the library. This is such a fun time as we transform the Library into a Winter Wonderland! In this month of thanksgiving, the Friends are thankful for all our members and we thank you for your time and commitment to the Friends. New members always welcome!
