NEW YORK STATE CITIZEN PREPAREDNESS CORPS TRAINING

New York State Citizen Preparedness Corps Disaster Training Program

Led by the New York State National Guard

Saturday, March 10 at 10:00 am

FREE - held in the Friends Community Room

With severe weather events becoming more frequent and more extreme, it is more important than ever that

New Yorkers are prepared for disasters. The NY Citizen Preparedness Training Program teaches residents to have the tools and resources to prepare for any type of disaster, respond accordingly and recover as quickly as possible to pre-disaster conditions. The 1.5 hour long training course will provide an introduction to responding to different types of disasters and Active Shooter/Active Violence scenarios. Participants will be advised on how to properly prepare for any disaster, including developing a family emergency plan and stocking up on emergency supplies. No registration necessary. All are welcome and encouraged to attend.

Solutions to College Cost with John Decker, College Assistance Plus Tuesday, March 6 at 7:00 pm Friends Community Room

It is that time of the year again, and the Friends are preparing for our Olde Home Days Basket Raffle in June. If you are a business and would like to advertise by donating an item to the basket raffle, please contact President Audrey Kearney at 315-673-0195, a member of the Friends group or a library staff member.

On February 8, the Friends hosted a special event starring celebrity Lebanese chef Julie Taboulie, who spoke on getting her start at the Marcellus Library. One of the highlights of the evening was when President Audrey Kearney accepted on behalf of the group a 50 Year Anniversary proclamation from NY State Senator John DeFrancisco, by county legislator John McBride. Also presented was a second proclamation from Michael Plochoki, Onondaga County Legislator. A most enjoyable evening was had by all who attended in celebration of our 50 years as an organization.

Please see the enclosed newsletter insert for ticket information or visit our website, marcelluslibrary.org.

The Artist for March is Tom Hussey

Tom Hussey, inspired by his grandfather, George T. Miller began painting in oils at age 12. Over forty years later, he still has not lost his enthusiasm. He frequently paints "en plein air" with oils, and also utilizes acrylics and pastels for studio work. The Auburn painter finds the Northeast a landscaper painter's paradise. Tom is a member of the Seneca County Arts Council and teaches painting classes at the Onondaga Senior Center.
