Committee Reports:

Friends Update: Given by S. Kankus: As of today, membership of the Friends is at 217. The Friends are still accepting book donations for the Book Nook and Olde Home Days. The Friends are working on developing slate of officers for the 2026-27 fiscal year and do not anticipate any problems filling those open positions! Continuing to update bylaws and officer roles/position descriptions. Final stages of being able to accept membership applications and dues via the website. Additionally, looking at an alternative for accepting credit cards for annual book sales. As of the end of April, the Friends will have donated over $13,000 to the library since the beginning of their fiscal year, July 1, 2025. Since July 1, 20 Friends members have contributed more than 350 hours volunteering in books sales, the Book Nook, the Holiday open house, groundskeeping and in other ways!! The Friends next meeting is on April 15th at 1pm.

Finance Update: Given by J. Pellizzari:

- The balance sheet remains strong. Our cash position is roughly $60K lower than the same time 2025, primarily due to prepayment of the Creekwalk Project.
- Revenue is tracking very close to budget; however, our annual fund drive did come in behind expectation / our previous years.
- Our annual form 990 is due on May 15th. Martha is beginning to work on that report.
- Tompkins Account – Our investment mix remains unchanged, and we have no near-term or significant mid-term needs from our portfolio.

Nominations Update: we were pleased to welcome Vanessa Barton as our guest this evening, and we will vote Vanessa on as a Trustee when we reach “New Business”. Welcome Aboard, Vanessa!

Development Update: From January meeting: Sophia received confirmation from Peter at Tuscarora that October 11th is available for this year’s Gala Fundraiser. The Board decided that early evening was still a good time, and that we need to discuss themes. Feedback included that dressing up or “era-themed” events were off-putting to some, and may have hurt attendance. Perhaps a comedian or entertainment that didn’t require involvement by the attendees, or hint that dressing up was encouraged, will be the direction we move to.

Building on this with update from April meeting: ideas were given for a wine class/tasting, beer class/tasting, jazz band. We will check with Peter on viable options and what outside vendors are permitted to come in for things like this.

Buildings and Maintenance: Duraseal quote has been received for sealing and striping. The roofing and soffit project has come to a halt as there are hesitations on work involved. So, this project has been paused with Welch for now. New concern is dripping water for the awning over the main entrance.

Personnel/Policies: No updates at this time
